
WORK EXPERIENCE

(2011 - present) Creative Director

Jogonaut

Deerfield Beach, Florida

My responsibilities include designing the main look and identity of the games. The general design is passed on to a team of designers that I manage to maintain the game's goals and identity.

(2010 - 2011) Assc. Interactive Creative Director

Brown Parker & DeMarinis Advertising

Delray Beach, Florida

I started as a UX Designer and Front-end Web Developer under a team of Creative Directors. I was promoted as the Interactive Assc. Creative Director where I was responsible for coming up with creative solutions for our clients' needs. I also designed and developed the interactive solutions and managed a small team of back-end developers.

(2009 - 2010) UX Designer / Front End Developer

Brown Parker & DeMarinis Advertising

Delray Beach, Florida

(2009 - 2009) UX Designer / Front End Developer

Integralnet Marketing

Boca Raton, Florida

From 2006 to 2009 I worked my way into the interactive industry as a web designer and front-end web developer. I learned how to manage many projects at once. I worked with many teams on coming up with unique solutions to projects by researching, sitemapping, wireframing, designing and programming every project from beginning to end as well as managing clients and their expectations. Some of my skill set includes:

- + User Interface / User Experience Design
- + XHTML / CSS / Javascript / JQuery
- + Working in a PHP / MySQL / LAMP Environment
- + Agile/SCRUM Development
- + Full Application QA and Cross Browser Testing
